Note: Super User status will allow you to edit and delete users from your company on the Integral Marketing web site. No employee from your company will be set up by Integral Marketing for web access without written notice from the super user on file. Each employee can edit his or her own password information, so you can set them up and then they can change their password for security purposes.

Please keep in mind the accounts receivable password is a general password only to be given out to those individuals you want to have access to A/R and History information.

Please list additional employees that you would like ECD to set up on the web site for you. (Superusers can also do this from the web site).
